Conference Update 1

The organising committee ONA WA - the WA local chapter of ANZONA, are looking forward to welcoming you all to Perth in 12 months time.

We are pleased to introduce Natalia Kerrilee, Dianna Crebbin and their team from DC Conferences as our conference managers.

Several guest presenters have been confirmed and we will be announcing our keynote presenters in the near future. We will be inviting you to share your practice, research, innovations and your ideas with us with the Call for Papers opening in early 2017.

Early Bird Registration will be available online in early 2017.

Accommodation

We have negotiated discounts for our delegates with the Pan Pacific Perth Hotel and several other accommodation providers close to the conference venue. Several options will be offered including hotel rooms and self catering apartments (suitable to share with your colleagues should you wish to).

Places to see close to our conference venue

The Swan River

Elizabeth Quay

The Bell Tower

Kings Park (Wildflower season)

Perth Mint

London Court

Barrack St Jetty is a 10 minute walk (for ferries to Rottnest Island and Fremantle, and cruises for the Swan River, the

Swan Valley, and Whale

Watching in the Indian

Ocean)

Perth Zoo

Northbridge - Cultural and

Entertainment district

Cottesloe Beach (via the Perth

- Fremantle train line)

All accommodation options are within walking distance to our conference venue and are located in the Perth CBD, only a short distance away from shopping, food and entertainment.

Booking will be available online via our conference website in early 2017.

Travel opportunities in WA

Make it a holiday while you are here!

Keep up to date with our suggestions for things to do and see in Perth and further afield throughout Western Australia - regular updates are being posted on our ANZONA Facebook page and Twitter (@ANZONA1).

We will be sourcing discount options for tours and travel opportunities for our delegates.
